

Pregnancy Timeline

Use what you have learned about pregnancy to fill in the blanks below!

Conception

The union of the _____ cell and the _____ cell which marks the beginning of pregnancy.

2nd Month

A fetus is about _____ long and has developed finger and toe buds.

4th Month

The fetus is now _____ enough that mothers can feel the baby move.

6th Month

The fetus' lungs are filled with amniotic fluid, but the fetus begins practicing how to _____.

8th Month

The fetus begins to develop layers of _____ under the skin. This will help the baby regulate temperature after birth.

Birth

After delivering a baby, a mother will deliver an organ called the _____. This organ transferred oxygen and nutrients to the baby's blood.

Word Bank

Head-down	Egg	Placenta	Fat
Swallow	Heart	Sperm	Brain
Large	Skin	One inch
Fingernails	Breathe	Kick

1st Month

The _____ and _____ develop in the first month of pregnancy.

3rd Month

The fetus has started to _____ and _____.

5th Month

A protective coating called vernix caseosa begins to form on the fetus' _____.

7th Month

_____ have formed on the fetuses' fingers.

9th Month

In most cases, the fetus has turned _____. This is the way most babies are born through the vagina.

Answer Key: 0: Egg and Sperm
1: Brain and Heart
2: One Inch
3: Swallow and Kick
4: Large
5: Skin
6: Breathe
7: Fingernails
8: Fat
9: Head-down
10: Placenta